

NIGERIA'S NATIONAL SITUATION WITH OFFSHORE CARBON STORAGE - AT THE INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP ON OFFSHORE CO2 STORAGE -19-21 APRIL 2016, AUSTIN, TEXAS

Presented By

Dr. Mogo, Felicia Chinwe (Ph.D)
HEAD POLLUTION CONTROL, MARINE ENVIRONMENT MANAGEMENT
DEPARTMENT; NIGERIAN MARITIME ADMINISTRATION AND SAFETY AGENCY; [NIMASA]

Member: UN-Group of Experts on Scientific Aspects of Marine Environment Protection (GESAMP)

Chair: IMO Expert Compliance Group on London Protocol

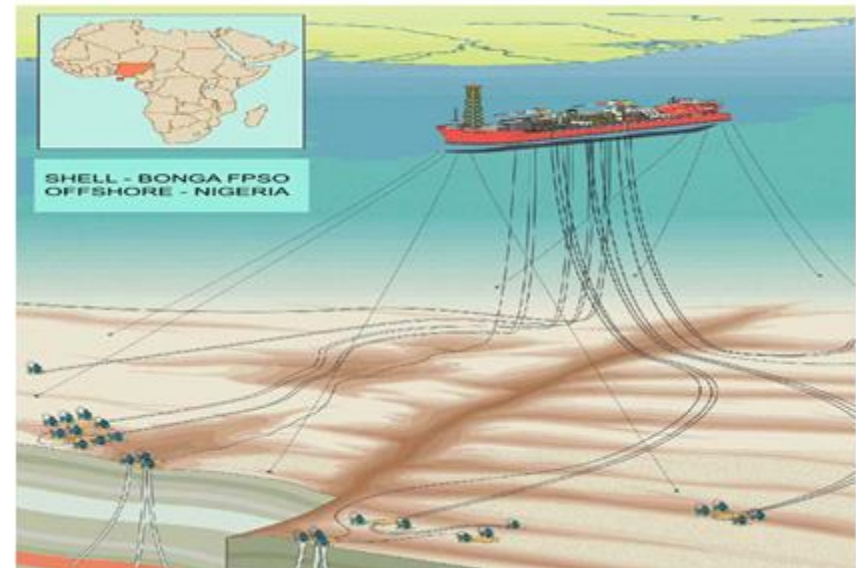

Co-Chair: UNEP-GPA on marine litter for UNEA 2

felichimogo@yahoo.com

Phone: +234-8033157989

Nigeria on the CCS Pathway

- Nigeria's emissions reduction goals
- Identifying important CO₂ sources sinks for Nigeria
- Existing infrastructure and transportation options
- Potential for CO₂-enhanced oil recovery
- Challenges and Gaps
- How Nigeria can build skills and jobs
- Steps forward

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS
AT AUSTIN

Opportunities for Africa in Carbon Capture and Storage (CCS)

8th November 2016

UNFCCC Side Event
COP-22, Marrakech

Carbon Capture & Storage Association

